Payroll never stops, nor is it ever canceled. When what matters most is your people, global payroll continuity is essential.

EY teams are leveraging a workflow engine to provide a modernized digital experience for organizations to obtain global payroll advice and country quick-start payroll during unprecedented times. Specific inquiries will be routed to appropriate EY teams with competencies including: global payroll operations and advisory, expatriates, and employment and labor law. EY aims to help companies by:

- Evaluating business continuity plans for payroll and determining the minimum amount of data required to fulfil them
- Providing a quick-start payroll in cases where local vendors and teams fail

- Sharing leading practices regarding how to approach the payroll situations they are encountering
- Keeping them up-to-date with the changing country legislation
- Providing staff augmentation through remote assistance
- Addressing specific tax and legal questions such as: "I have hourly workers with a certain policy, what am I legally required to do?"
- Addressing specific payroll challenges, for example: "My bank fob is in the office and I cannot leave my house"

EY Payroll managed services in over 150 countries are designed to transform your payroll function and create a distinctive employee experience via one compliance, process and technology platform.

Our professionals can help you streamline global payroll operations and reduce compliance risk, supporting you to meet payroll needs today and tomorrow.

How prepared is your organization for the next business interruption?

Key considerations include:

- How is your company staying on-top of and addressing any new and changing legislation affecting your payroll?
- Did your organization experience any payroll interruptions during the COVID-19 crisis or during post-COVID-19 recovery?
- Does your organization have any multi-national, expat employees who need assistance? Is your company experiencing continued financial losses and possible bankruptcy that could impact your continuity?
- Are you in vendor overload?
- How far have you taken your payroll in the digital transformation world?
- Are you paying your people accurately and promptly? Is your payroll adding value?
- Do you have a failing payroll vendor or need a quick implementation in a country where you operate?
- How do you think you are performing against your peers?
